Monday 2.24.14	LDS Talk The Value of People - Charles A. Didier The way is to repent and obey the commandments of the Lord and be examples to the rest of the nations by listening to a living prophet. The church is The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, restored by the Prophet Joseph Smith. The Lord is the Lord Jesus Christ, of whom it is said, "For there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved." The Constitution - A Glorious Standard - Ezra Taft. Benson The framers of the Constitution were men raised up by God to establish this foundation of our government, for so the Lord has declared by revelation in these words: "I established the Constitution of this land, by the hands of wise men whom I raised up unto this very purpose, and redeemed the land by the shedding of blood." Joseph Smith - The Mighty Prophet of The Restoration - Bruce R. Mcconkie We all need the enlightening power of the Holy Spirit as we turn our attention to that prophet whose voice was the voice of the Lord to all of earth's inhabitants from his day onward. I pray that enlightenment from on high may now be poured out upon us in abundant measure.	9
	The Constitution in Exile - Judge Andrew P. Napolitano Chapters 1 - 3 When the convention (Constitution Convention of 1787) started, the delegates recognized that all the states shared two common goals: To form a representational democracy, which is a republican form of government. To create a limited central government, which is a government with express written powers and limitations.	60
	Rich Dad Poor Dad for Teens - Robert T. Kiyosaki "If you want to do something - and you think you can - chances are, you'll get it done."	26
	Loving What Is - Four Questions That Can Change Your Life - Byron Katie Katie "To realize your true nature, you must wait for the right moment and the right conditions. When the time comes, you are awakened as if from a dream. You understand that what you have found is your own and doesn't come from anywhere outside."	58

	A Thousand Names for Joy: Living in Harmony With the Way Things Are - Byron Katie The Work Is it true? Can you absolutely know it's true? How do you react when you believe that thought? Who would you be without the thought?	51
Tuesday 2.25.14	LDS Talk Are We Following Christ's Pattern - William R. Bradford The Master Jesus Christ has set the pattern in all things. He has called all men to follow his pattern with this decree: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, this is my gospel; and ye know the things that ye must do in my church; for the works which ye have seen me do that shall ye also do; for that which ye have seen me do even that shall ye do. "Therefore, what manner of men ought ye to be? Verily I say unto you, even as I am." But They Were In One - George P. Lee Of all the great commandments given to us by our Heavenly Father, he rates these number one and two. My brothers and sisters, you cannot live one without the other; both must be lived and practiced if we are to be found with Him in the celestial glory. In this church there is no place for hate, animosity, or prejudice. Nor are they found in the celestial kingdom. The Blessing of Building a Temple - Adney Y. Kamatsu "For thus saith the Lord—I, the Lord, am merciful and gracious unto those who fear me, and delight to honor those who serve me in righteousness and in truth unto the end. "Great shall be their reward and eternal shall be their glory."	9
	The Constitution in Exile Chapters 4 - 6 Gibbons v. Ogden held that, "No preference shall be given, by any regulation of commerce or revenue, to the ports of one State over those of another; nor shall vessels to or from one State, be obliged to enter, clear, or pay duties in another." That is the great statement of the law, and it is the singular purpose of the Commerce Clause, to make commerce regular by preventing the states from interfering with it. The Constitution mandated that both Congress and the states can regulate interstate commerce as long as their laws do not conflict.	40

	Loving What Is Notice when your thoughts argue with reality Stay in your own business Meet your thoughts with understanding Be aware with your stories (thoughts)	60
	A Thousand Names for Joy: Living in Harmony With the Way Things Are Confusion is the only suffering. Confusion is when you argue with what is. When you're perfectly clear, what is is what you want. So when you want something that's different from what is, you can know that you're very confused.	63
Wed. 2.26.14	LDS Talk Are You a Member Missionary? - Gene R. Cook "And again, I say unto you, I give unto you a commandment, that every man, both elder, priest, teacher, and also member, go to with his might, with the labor of his hands, to prepare and accomplish the things which I have commanded." "And let your preaching be the warning voice, every man to his neighbor, in mildness and in meekness." That We May Be One - Howard W. Hunter "Then ye shall answer them, That the waters of Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the Lord; when it passed over Jordan, the waters of Jordan were cut off: and these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of Israel for ever." Seeking Eternal Riches - Spencer W. Kimball We reiterate over and over the exhortation of the Christ when he admonished his hearers to "seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."	9
	The Constitution in Exile Chapters 7 - 9 "The state is free to adopt whatever economic policy may reasonably be deemed to promote public welfare and to enforce that policy by legislation adapted to its purpose."	44

	Loving What Is You're either attaching to your thoughts or inquiring. There's no other choice.	55
	A Thousand Names for Joy: Living in Harmony With the Way Things Are Good things, bad things; good people, bad people. These opposites are valid only by contrast. Could it be that whatever seems bad to you is just something you haven't seen clearly enough yet? In reality - as it is in itself - every thing, every person, lies far beyond your capacity to judge.	53
Thursday 2.27.14	LDS Talk A Report & a Challenge - Spencer W. Kimball Brothers and sisters, we urge all our people to "be ye clean that bear the vessels of the Lord," to live the Lord's commandments, to do what is right. I am the Vine, Ye Are the Branches - Dean L. Larson "Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me. "I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. "If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. "Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples." Notwithstanding My Weakness - Neal A. Maxwell We can contemplate how far we have already come in the climb along the pathway to perfection; it is usually much farther than we acknowledge. True, we are "unprofitable servants," but partly because when "we have done that which was our duty to do," with every ounce of such obedience comes a bushel of blessings.	9

	Loving What Is The more clearly you understand yourself and your emotions, the more you become a lover of what is.	62

	A Thousand Names for Joy: Living in Harmony With the Way Things Are "To think that we need sadness or outrage to motivate us to do what's right is insane. As if the clearer and happier you get, the less kind you become. As if when someone finds freedom, she just sits around all day with drool running down her chin. My experience is the opposite. Love is action. It's clear, it's kind, it's effortless, and it's irresistible."	55
Friday 2.28.14	LDS Talk Perfecting the Saints - Franklin D. Richards With reference to the perfecting of the Saints, the Savior has asked us to become perfect even as our Father in heaven is perfect. In modern revelation we are told that we “are not able to abide the presence of God now, neither the ministering of angels; wherefore, continue in patience until ye are perfected.” The Temptations of Christ - Howard W. Hunter As with Jesus, so with us, relief comes and miracles are enjoyed after the trial and temptation of our faith. There is, of course, running through all of these temptations, Satan’s insidious suggestion that Jesus was not the Son of God, the doubt implied in the tempter’s repeated use of the word if. “If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.” “If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down.” These, of course, were foreshadows of that final, desperate temptation which would come three years later: “If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.” But Jesus patiently withstood that ploy also, knowing in due time every knee would bow and every tongue confess. Families Are Forever - David B. Haight He has committed to mankind the promise that all who believe and are baptized in His holy name and endure in faith to the end will be saved. As of today the Church is even more effectively prepared to reach and encourage all men to hearken unto His voice, for His everlasting covenant is established and is a standard for His people. They are to be messengers and prepare the way before Him. Inhabitants of the earth are to receive the gospel that the kingdom of God might go forth. The Lord has said, “Thou [meaning us] shalt declare glad tidings, ... publish it upon the mountains, ... upon every high place, ... among every people that thou shalt be permitted to see. “... thou shalt declare repentance ... and remission of sins by baptism.”	9

	Loving What Is As long as you think that the cause of your problem is 'out there'—as long as you think that anyone or anything is responsible for your suffering—the situation is hopeless. It means that you are forever in the role of victim, that you're suffering in paradise. It's not your job to like me. Its mine.	52
	A Thousand Names for Joy: Living in Harmony With the Way Things Are "Life is simple. Everything happens for you, not to you. Everything happens at exactly the right moment, neither too soon nor too late. You don't have to like it... it's just easier if you do."	42
